TIME PERIODS FOR FILING A REPLY TO THIS NOTICE:

1. Applicant is given no new time period if the non-compliant amendment is an after-final amendment or an amendment filed after allowance. If applicant wishes to resubmit the non-compliant after-final amendment with corrections, the entire corrected amendment must be resubmitted.
2. Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. If any of above boxes 1. to 4. are checked, the correction required is only the corrected section of the non-compliant amendment in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121.

Continuation of 1(c): Amendments to the specification must be made by presenting a replacement paragraph or section marked up to show changes made relative to the immediate prior version. Furthermore, reference to "drawings" is improper and confusing, since the specification may not contain "drawings".

Continuation of 4(e): Firstly, since the immediate prior version of the claims contained all new claims, it is improper to now refer to them as being "previously amended". Such claims that are not instantly or currently amended should be identified as "previously presented". Secondly, claim 40 is not a new claim; therefore, it contains an incorrect status identifier. Thirdly, the amendment to claim 41 is improper, because deleted subject matter can only be set forth by strikethrough or double bracketing. Furthermore, it is noted that double bracketing can only be used in situations where five or fewer characters are being deleted. Fourthly, claim 43 has been denoted as being "previously amended"; however, it has been currently amended in that the period at the end of the sentence has been deleted. It is noted that the deletion has not been denoted by the required markings.
